Marriage of Miss Woodhouse to Mr. W. L. Prince, of This City.

AT HOMES, TEAS, LUNCHEONS

Pleasant Entertainments Will Keep the Smart Set on the Go-Rabbis Honored.

Gone Seaward.

If to carry beyond us a soul undaunted,
If to leave among us who saw him go.
A name that is bright because he bore it.
Inwrought with honor as white as snow;
If these are worthy the Hope Eternal,
Then hope must follow his flight, I

If to stretch a hand to hands that needed If to soften the path unto weary fee
If fair deeds done in life's silent places
Because such deeds to his heart w

If these make light on the shadowed waters, waters.

He has gone where a thousand splen-dors meet. On the shadowed waters where there comes no answer.

To the broken questions we ask in vain-To the broken questions we ask in value on the sea whose tides ebb out forever And beat not back to our feet again; Has the bright light passed that to lives that loved him, Only in passing had given pain?

But across those waters no darkness Over the way that thy soul hath fied, So deep that my Love may not follow after.

When the tears are done and the prayers When the tears are done and the prayers are said
Follow and cling and abide forever, until
I, too, follow,
O dear and dead,

And I lift my face to the far-off haven.

From these old fields where our feet once tred

Life's ways together, in long days ever.

With sandals of youth and of courage

Praying the paths that are here diver-

May blend in the fields of the peace of

The Tuesday German.

The Tuesday German Club will give the opening dance of the season in the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, December 12th, and debutantes, society belies and charming chaperones are looking forward to it with expectation on tip-toe.

ward to it with expectation on tip-toc. It will mark the line over which they will pass into the delightful social gayety that will continue into the New Year.

Thilow's orchestra will be in attendance. Ball room decorations will be in attendance. Ball room decorations will be in Christians holly and mistietoe, and Mr. Adolphus Blady will lead the dance. At its conclusion a delicious menu will be served in the supper hall of the Temple.

Chaperones for the evening will include Mrs. W. S. P. Mayo, Mrs. R. T. Wilson, Mrs. John A. Coke, Jr., Mrs. William M. Tallaferro, Mrs. Adolphus Blady, Mrs. H. A. Gillis, Mrs. Parke Benjamin Tallaferro, Mrs. J. G. Farland, Mrs. E. L. Benson and Mrs. Stuart Cooke.

The Tuesday Club, always a factor in the best social life of the city, has lately been reorganized, with Mr. W. S. P. Mayo as president, Mr. John A. Coke, Jr., as vice-president, Mr. Henry S. Hotchkles as secretary and treasurer. The board is composed of Mr. Adolphus Bladr, Mr. W. M. Tallaferro, Mr. Leslie H. Reed, Mr. Thomas B. McAdams and Mr. R. T. Wilson,

Mrs. Claiborne's Gift.

Mrs. Claiborne's Gift.

At the meeting of the Virginia Colonial Dames last Friday afternoon, with Mrs. W. T. Robins, Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborn made a gift to the Society of manuscript

THE

BEST CHRISTMAS GIFT

For Wife, Mother, Daughter Sister or Sweetheart

By this Sign you may know and will find Singer Stores Everywhere

These Machines are never sold to dealers. Only from Maker to User

A small payment down, the rest at convenient intervals. Four different kinds and a wide range of prices to suit. Select Now-Delivery when wanted Get the Best and you get the Singer 19 West Broad Street,

Mrs. Dashiell and Mrs. Ellerson, who at every turn, that who will, may learn

The Dames met in the Missouri build-The Dames met in the Missouri build-ing at 11 A. M. Mrs. Shields president of the Missouri Society, very gracefully introduced the speakers. President Francis made the opening address and was followed by Mrs. Daniel Manning, president of the board of lady managers, who read a most cordial welcome from the board. Mrs. Clathorne spoke in response. Care

Mrs. Chiborne spoke in response. Carrilly prepared and most interesting addresses were then made by Dr. Spencer, president of the Missouri Society of Colonial Wars, and by General George 1. Shields, after which an elegant and elaborate luncheon was served in the banquet hall. Danies were present from far and rear, from Massachusetts to Florida, and from as far west as California. Afand rear, from Massachusetts to Florada, and from as far west as California. After the luncheon a reception was given in the Illinois building, and one later at the Texas building, and one later at the Texas building, at 0 · P. M. a magnificent entertainment, brilliant in every detail, was given the Dames by the board of lady managers. Other receptions were projected for the Dames, but were regratfully declined in consequence of lack of time.

At the request of the Virginia Dames, Mrs. Claiborne repeated the address made by her on that occasion, which is in part as follows:

"Carlyie has said that 'a man finds in a city just as much as he carries there,' but he could not have known the extent of St. Louis hospitality,

"We are more fortunate. We have brought warm hearts open wide to take you' to our own, prepared to appreciate overy kindness extended to us. You have, however, received us with a cordulatity so gracious, a hospitality so generous that you have given us not and from as far west as California. Af every kindness extended to us. You have, however, received us with a cordulity so gracious, a hospitulity so generous, that you have given us not only a present joy, but a permanent delight; for we will return to our homes rich in beautiful memories to be the 'spirit's food in days more wintry.'

"When we turn to this superb Exposition, where the civilization on the world is brought for our instruction and delight; where the story of one of the most momentous events in the annals of our country, is so magnificently displayed, it seems like a fairy tale to remember that but little more than a century ago the spot where we now stand was the unbroken solitude of the primeval forest, "This Exposition not only brings to us the arts and industries of the world, but from its historical importance it appeals particularly to a society whose aim is to preserve the records of the past; to foster a spirit of patriotism, a love of country, and to perpetuate the remembrance of herole achievements and engrave them upon the heart of the nation. There is a passage in Holy Scripture, you know, which blids us 'remember the days of old.'

The statues of historic monuments here inade a gift to the Society of manuscript comitry, and to perpetuate the remembers and and St. Peter's parish, in New Kent county, a most valuable contribution to colonial and local history.

An account of Colonial Dames' Day' in St. Louis was given by Mrs. Claiborne.

Country, and to perpetuate the remembrance of heroic achievements and entry are them upon the heart of the nation. There is a passage in Holy Scripture, you know, which bids' us 'remember the days of old.

The statues of historic monuments here.

-LEATHER OUTSOLE

Richmond, Va.

their message, serve to preserve the memory of a past full of work and struggle and difficulty, from which has resulted the magnificent world power of to-day.

"We pause to do homage to the illustrious of ancient days. Even the most careless observer must be impressed—his pride stirred, his patriotism fired and these object lessons become at once monuments of former greatness and a pledge of future glory.

"It is a great privilege to be here-to Mary W. Lewis, is most highly endorsed Street, Tuesday at 4:30 P. M. and is an author of much meril, as well as an interpreter of the writings of othas an interpreter of the writings of others. She is the daughter of Colonel Thomas Barbee and Nancy Speed Frye, and was born in Danville, Ky. "She is a woman," says one of her endorsers, "whose personal magnetism is remarkable, and whose acquaintance with her subject is the surest guarantee of her power to please any audience before whom she appears.

Her programme at the club will be rendered in original monologues, interwoven with her own life.

Prince—Woodhouse.

Blehmond and Norfolk society was in-

with her own life.

Prince—Woodhouse.

Richmond and Norfolk society was interested in the wedding at noon on Wednesday last of Mies Grace Arlington Woodhouse, the daughter of Major and Mrs. John Y. Woodhouse, to Mr. William Loftin Prince, of this city, a graduate of Richmond College, and the Virginia representative of Ginn and Company, of Boston.

The colciration took place in Eastern Shore Chapel, Princess Anne county, the Rev. Dr. Boverly Tucker, of Norfolk, and the Rev. Mr. Wales officialing. The church was beautifully decorated in palms, white flowers and white wax tapers in altar candlesticks.

The bride, gowned in blue cloth and a blue picture hat, came in with her father. Her flowers were bride's roses. Miss Camp Keeling, the maid of honor, were blue crepe de chine and carried an ambouquet of maiden-hair ferns. Mr. John Paul Woodhouse was best man, and the other attendants Mr. Hugh Powell, of this city, and Capiain coodwyn, of Emporia. Mr. and Mrs. Prince left immediately after the wedding for a Southern tour.

In connection with the wedding, a friend

In connection with the wedding, a friend of the bride, over the signature of "Harry Harrington," wrote the following lines:

"Glide sweetly on, oh life, oh life,
For her, dear maid, now made a wife,
In all her virtues meet and make
True womanhood for 4ts sweet sake;
A worthy Prince hath won the prize,
None richer bloomed in Paradise."

Women's Meetings.

St. Hilda's Guild of St. Paul's Church will hold a Christmas sale for the benefi of the Rugged Mountain Mission at No 1 West Franklin Street, Wednesday, De

The ladies of Seventh Street Christian Church will have a window display the last of this week at No. 307 East Broad

MRS. R. R. TOTTY,

Whose wedding was a brilliant event in Petersburg social circles last week. Mrs. Totty before her marriage was Miss Lillian E. Heineman, the daughter of Mr. Henry Heineman.

Every Woman

John Kelly

Cushion

Welt'

Who doesn't know the joy of a comfortable shoe should lose no time in getting into a pair of John Kelly's "Cork Cushion Welt Shoes."

Contains a porous, springy insole of elastic cork. Designed for women with tender, aching feet. Damp-proof and cold-proof. An enemy to "rheumatics."

The Cost? 33.50

SEYMOUR SYCLE

623 E. Broad St.

Corner Seventh.

meet and to know the Colonial Dames of Missouri and their gracious president. To them, personally, I desire to express my profound and sincere appreciation of the high honor that they have conferred upon me in giving me this opportunity to meet them and their guests who are the cross shee store, on Broad Street, in the content of the production of the upon me in giving me this opportunity to meet them and their guests who are assembled here to-day.

"It is likewise a privilege to have heard the delightful addresses of welcome from the president of this magnificent Exposition, and from the charming head of that distinguished body of women the board of lady managers of the Louisiana Furchase Exposition.

Purchase Exposition.
"The ties that bind us will be the closer

The ties that bind us will be the closer for this meeting, I am sure, Madame President, from my heart, I thank you and the Colonial Dames of Missouri."

After the business meeting the Dames had a rare treat, Miss Belle Johnson played a Persian love song, by Burmeister, with her usual brilliant technique and wonderful musical temperament, and Mrs. Arthur Selden sang with exquisite feeling "Would That We Were a-Maying," by Nevins, and "A Dream," by Bartlett, Mrs. Seldon's fine dramatic soprano, most noticeable for the color of its high notes, charmed the Dames.

Walden-Burwell.

Walden—Burwell.

The approaching marriage is announced of Miss Dalsy Bissell Burwell, of New York city, the daughter of the late Charles D. Burwell, to Dr. Richard Channing Walden, of this city.

The wedding will be celebrated in St. Matthew's Church, New York, December 25th, and after a wedding trip Dr. Walden, who is most favorably known in borling his bride to Richmond. Miss Burwell, who is Virginian through her parcents and family connections, is said to be a lovely young lady, with many accomplishments. Much interest is foit by the friends of the bride and groom-cleet in Richmond and New York over the announcement.

While the March of New York over the announcement.

This is to state a few facts which will she, in my heart, a most grateful appreciation of Grape-Nuts us a lifegiving, citation of Grape-Nuts us a lifegiving. The left in min a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such and the limit of the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in a state of such utter colling the limit in lapse and prostration of nerve force and bring his bride to Richmond. Miss Burrells and family connections, is said to be a lovely young lady, with many accomplishments. Much interest is felt by the friends of the bride and groom-elect in Richmond and New York over the announcement.

Whitehead—Ware.

Mrs. Roberta Mackey Powers has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Edmonia Ware, to Mr, Robert Whitehead, the ceremony to be performed Tuesday, December 27th, at noon, in ther home of the bride, Auburn, at Wickliffe, Va.

The young couple have many relatives and friends in Richmond, and it is probable that uite a party from this city will attend the wedding.

Miss Barbee at the Club, Miss Namie Barbee, of Kentucky, will give a dramatic and dislect recital at the Poman's Club on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Miss Barbee, who is the guest of Miss

Input and prostration of nerve force and energy that he was unabe to sustain his owe weight.

"A complication of troubles followed; the kidnoys became affected, and the doctors all declared his case hopeless.

"Katurally the stomach was loo enfected in the stomach was loo and milk, beef tea and the like soon became assenting to him.

"Simply as an experiment, a spoonful of Grape-Nuts was suggested and tried, its, predigested constituents seemed to examine an extending the stomach was loo enfected in the like stomach was loo enfected in creating the stomach was loo enfected in the like stomach was loo enfected in creating the stomach was loo enfe from December 12th to 17th. The patronage, of the public is solicited.

There will be a meeting of the Sheltering Arms Hospital Board Monday at noon, in the hospital, A large attendance of members is requested.

The Williams Memorial Circle of the King's Daughters will meet at Mrs. Charles Hagan's, No. 1008 East Marshall

Richmond Chapter to Meet. The Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will meet promptly at o'clock next Wednesday afternoon in Lee Camp Hall,

After the transaction of business some time will be spent in social intercourse, and tea will be served by the younger nembers of the chapter. Visiting Daughters are cordially invited to be present, and all members of the chapter are urged to attend, so that the common links of interest in a great common cause may be drawn more closely and new energy and life may be infused into the organiza-

Pickett Auxiliary.

The ladies of Pickett Camp Auxiliary will hold their next regular meeting Monday, the 12th, at 3 P. M., in their hall, No. 307 North Seventh Street. All the members are most carnesity requested to attend. Art Club of Women's College.

Art Club of Women's College.
The Art Class of the Woman's College was at home to its friends in the pariors of the college last evening.
The work accomplished by the class since the beginning of the session was on exhibit in the art studio, and was much commended. The young ladies were assisted in doing the honors by Miss Bacon, who his charge of the college art department.
The evening's programme was agreeably varied by plane and vocal selections from Misses Robinson and Smith, and by recitals from Miss Pettit.

Polar Tea and Luncheon.

Polar Tea and Luncheon. Polar Lea and Dancieron.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary Church will welcome their friends to a polar ten and luncheon on the 15th, 16th and 17th of December, at No. 500 East Main Street. Their usual tempting menu will be provided, and business men and Christmas shoppers will find it most entions.

ticing.
In the afternoons the Snew Man will greet the children, and a mysterious snow ball will be presented for each five cents

Miss Leftwich at Home.

One of the pleasantest social events of the past week was the at home of Miss Carrie Leftw ... Friday last from 4 to 6

Carrie Leftw o Friday last from 4 to 6 P. M.

The spacious pariors were decorated in American Beauties and palms. A shower of the roses made the centerplece for the table. Palms were attractively grouped here and there. Red-shaded lamps and red candles in silver candelamps and red candles in silver candelamps and halls, which were througed with callers during reception hours.

Miss Leftwich was gowned in ivory white creps de chine, trimmed in lêce and louches of green velvet. She received her guests assisted by Mrs. Potts and Miss Green, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Fairlie Cooke presided gracefully at the tea table. In the dining room were Mrs. John Ellett, Mrs. R. T. Hunter, Mrs. Percy Hawes, Mrs. Adlen Ferguson and Mrs. Edward Quaries.

A delicious collation was served by Miss Julia Lee, Miss Lella Gray, Miss Mary Ellett, Miss Nellie Gray, Miss Belle Pindar, Miss Lelly Cary, Miss Mary Ellorence, Miss Kate Saunders, Miss Bessie Hunter, Miss Alpha Heth and Miss Ione Winston.

Dabney-Gary.

Miss Mary Cornella Dabney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Dabney, and Mr. John Hamilton Gary, of this city, will be married at noon Thursday, Decomber 15th. The wedding will be at the home of the bride, Barton Heights.

Reception to Visiting Rabbis.

Reception to Visiting Rabbis.

Reception to Visiting Rabbis.
One of the most brilliant receptions of the year in Richmond was held last evening in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward N. Callsch, No. 1036 West Grace Street, when the congregation of Temple Betti Ahabah called to pay their respects to the distinguished rabbis who are in Richmond to participate in the ceremonial attendant upon the consecration of the beautiful new Jewish Temple.

From 9 to 11 o'clock a splendidly dreused throng of men and women assembled in the parlors of the Callsch home, where they were received by Mrs. E. N. Callsch, Mrs. J.con Wallerstein, Mrs. H. S. Binswanger, Mrs. Samuel Cohen, Mrs. I. Lichtenstein, Mrs. A. L. Straus and Mrs. M. G. Marcusel Theso ladies assisted in entertaining and in the dilning room, where a splendid collation was spread.

Decorations in parlors and dining room were in La France roses. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation by Beth Ahabah Congregation, through Dr. Callsch, of beautiful silver loving cups to the rabbis who were the evening's guests of honor. The presentation was marked with great enthusiasm and good feeling on the part of the congregation and those whom they honored.

Surprise Party.

Surprise Party.

Surprise Party.

A delightful surprise party was given to Miss Edna Loose by her many triends at the home of her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Friedhoff, at No. 330 O Street. Among those present were Misses Ione Gregory, Lena Roach, Eisie Koch, Ruth Evans, Pearl and Althea, Walton, Lillie Moore, Annie Greenstreet, Ethel Gregory, Mamie Breedlove, Messrs. Robert Greenstreet, Frank Moore, Mr. Hall, Arthur Johnston, W. A. Jenkins, J. Crowder, Leylie Evans, H. S. Shelton, J. Ayres and Herbert Breedlove. Herbert Breedlove.

A Great Success.

Great Success attended the presentation of the sparkling two-act comedy,
"A Great Catastrophe," in the home of
Mrs. Meade, No. 9 North Sixth Street,
Friday evening.
All the seats were taken and quite a good sum was realized for the Sheltcring Arms Hospital, the play being given for the benefit of that institution. While the entire cast did wonderfully well, it was conceded by all present that Miss Ellen Meade made the hit of the evening. Size did her part splendidly.

Personal Mention,

"MANNA"

The Old Biblical Term Suggests Good Food.

Such remarkable changes can be brought about by food properly selected that the best physicians now look to the rearrangement of a person's diet as one of the most important things.

A member of the Clinic Publishing Co., publishers of medical journals in Chicago, writes as follows, and says that he does not object to our using his name publicly:

"I wish to state a few facts which will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you why there is, and ever will show to you while you have the part aplendidly.

Mrs. Do Cxox Mrs. Robert G. Cabell.

Mrs. D. T. Williams has returned from a visit to New York, where she went to say good-by to her daughter, Mrs. R. M.

Gilbert, before the int. of the did her part aplendidly.

Mrs. John Coxon Klein, of San Francisco, is the guest of Mrs. Robert G. Cabell.

Mrs. D. T. Williams has returned from a visit to New York, where she went to say good-by to her daughter, Mrs. R. M.

Medde made made the mit

Miss Fannie Ross and Miss Claudia Palmer are the guests of Mrs. Walter Stilson Hutchins, in New York.

The laddes of Beth Ahabah Auxillary, who will hold a bazaar Christmas week to complete the fund for the interior decoration of the new temple, have had a plane donated them, which will be voted to the most popular charity in Richmond Votes will be sold at ten cents each and have already been cast for Memorial Hospital, the Sheltering Arms, Male Orphan Asylum, Masonic Home and the Home for Needy Confederate Women. The voting will continue for four nights at the Armory, Mrs. Sam Cohen is chairman of the bazaar.

Mrs. Thomas O. Keesee, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is now convalescing.

The Winchester Prening Star says:
The engagement of Miss May Mason, the daughter of Mr. James M. Mason, of Charlestown, and granddaughter of former United States Senator James M. Mason, of Virginia, to Mr. Philip Speed, formerly of Lexington, Ky. and now of New York, has been announced. The wedding will take place shortly, Mr.

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

Maufmann Vo

THESE THREE NUMBERS IN COATS AND Suits are part of an advantageous purchase made some few weeks ago; owing, however, to their belated arrival, we secured an additional allowance. The prices quoted indicate the doucle advantage.

The Suits

At Double Saving.

At $10-TOURIST SUIT of fancy mixture, double-breasted cont, a very full, swagger model, 34 inch length; has slae plats front and back, inverted pleat noticled collar, leg-o-muton sleeve, turn-back cuffs, patch pockets, button trimmed, ninegored skirt, platted from knee, $10. AL SIK-TWO NUMBERS In Chavlot and Broadcloth, comes in blue, brown and black in the chevlot, and black and blue in the broadcloth. The Broadcloth the broadcloth. The Broadcloth Suits have collariess, hip-ingth coats (25 inches long), snugly fitted back, fly front, leg-o-'mutton sleeve, turn-back cuffs, very effectively trimmed with braid and buttons; the coats are satin lined—$15.

THE SUITS OF CHEVIOT come with collariess, double-breasted, loose back coats, having sectional belts, with pointed side straps running into side seams; handsomely trimmed about the neck in soutache and silk braid in scroll design. The turn-back cuffs and patch pockets are trimmed to match. The skirts are of seven gores, platied a are of seven gores, plaited a little below the knee; the coats are satin lined-$15.

RED-STRICTLY MAN-TAIL-ORDD SUITS of very fine Broadcloth, with full tight-fitting 24-inch coats, notched velvet collar. The tailored seams are fushioned into narrow side plaits, effecting a very nobby finish; skirt of nine gores, tailored seams falling into side plaits, forms panel of the front gore. These suits come in extra large sizes; we are prepared to large sizes; we are prepared to fit women of large proportions -$25.

The Coats

At Double Saving.

#5—And this cont stands easily as the best value we have ever offered, for a better quality of covert was never put into a coat made to sell for less than $10. It's a full box style, 30 inches long, cut collariess, double-breasted front, leg-o-mutton sleeve, with turn-back cuffs; tailor stitching about the neck gives a neat finish; easily the best coat a five-dollar bill ever bought.

#5.08-Of all wool Kersey cloth, collarless model, 42-inch length, double-breasted front; the double-breasted front; the loose back has inverted center plait to waist, there released, allowing full, wide skirt; sectional belt, patch pockets, fancy turn-back cuffs on the full sleeves; comes in castor and black.

$10-Of covert cloth, comes in olive and tan, 42-inch length, double-breasted front, loose back, caught by belt; elaborated about the neck (which is collariess) and cuffs with tailor stitching, the yoke and sleeves lined with satin.

$10--- Raincoats---$13.50

The $10 COAT is a cravenette material, of fancy mixture, flitted back, with just a suggestion of a belt, double-breasted front, notched collar, full sleeve, fancy gun metal auttons; very styllsh, $10.

stylish, $10.

The COAT at $13.50 is of tan cravenette, a collarless, double breasted, loose back model, with three box plaits in back, running full length, belted all around; pointed tabs about the neck and on the turn-back cuffs, finished with a eingle button, gives a very nobby effect.

$.4.50.

XMAS

Presents For the Tots.

With the approach of Christmas baby rules supreme, , and the great question is what is there—and where—is there anything quite good enough for baby.

Within the precincts devoted to baby belongings you'll find There are Bonnets—beautiful, quaint and so pretty; Little Coats, Baby Furs, White Dresses, Tlny Sweaters, Leggins—cute little baby fashions in almost endless variety and at prices cor-

HANDSOME BONNET of imita-tion bearskin; the brim is formed of bengaline silk, shirred on cords and ruffled; ruching iaid in triple lox plaits completes the facing; tempting price, $1.75.

A DIRECTOIRE MODEL in red, A DIRECTORRS MODEL in rea, the crown is platted, full cape outlined by slik cord in pretty contrast chiffon; a profusion of narrow ribbon against a background of corded slik forms the facing, and in this mass of white nestles a bright-eyed beaver head; fur edging completes the charm; attractive price, $3.08. HERE COMES LITTLE RED RIDING HOOD, in broadast velvet, front faced with a general luxuriance of silk chiffon and ribbon, edged with the velvet, diamond-shape crown, roso quilling about the neck, running into long streamers; ribbon bows on the sides and on the top a rosette of same, from which a mink head peeps out; tempting at $4.50. A PURITAN SHAPE, fashioned of dove-colored panne velvet, trimmed sweetly with silk applique and chiffon in white; chiffon streamers the under the cherub's chin. You'd almost be willing to puy more; fair price, $4.98. A DUTCH BONNET in blue, a white silk, encased by velvet shirring, forming a plateau; white net of delicate texture about the face, circular crown of lace and velvet and half hidden between this crown and plateau are bows of soft ribbon; irresistible at this price, $5.

A superabundance of the little White Silk Infants' Caps, in the French and Dutch shapes, elaborated with Ribbons, fluffy ruches, embroidery, hemstitching, etc., in the prettiest baby fashions. Exceptional values—25c, 48c, 75c, 98c $1.25, $1.48, $1.75 and on up to $3.50. Worthy of special mention we consider—

A FRENCH STYLE of slik embroidered in dainty design, ruffles of lace alternate with diminutive cluster tucks, and hemsitching about the sides and crown, #1.75.

LITTLE DUCTH CAP of soft white pongee ells, trimined with chiffon embroidered tucking and narrow white slik braid, slik lined,

The Stunning Little Baby Coats.

From amongst the most attractive and best assorted stock of Infants' Long and Short Coats of Cashmore, Bedford Cord, Serge, Silk, Bearskin and Plain and Crushed Velvets. We quote the following, equally attractive in style, material and value. A LITTLE ARISTOCRAT IN BEARSKIN. Of course we mean the imitation; but you'd never know that they owed their being to the weaver's art, so closely do these resemble the real fur that they can scarcely be distinguished even by the sense of touch. This one has the coat collar, cuffs and belt of White Broadtall Velvet, and the combination is very nobby; price, $7.50.

Of White Broadtall Velvet, with funcy cape, decorated with cluster of gold buttons, coat collar, belted back, quaint sleeves, with turnback cuffs, the cape, collar and cuffs being edged with slik; attractive value, $7.50.

